

MEDIA ALERT

For more information, contact Teresa Peterson 407-432-1974

St John Vianney Catholic School Celebrates 50 years of Educating Children in Orlando

WHO: Most Reverend John Noonan, Bishop of Orlando
Father Miguel Gonzalez, Pastor, St. John Vianney Catholic Church
Sister Elizabeth Murphy, School Principal, St. John Vianney Catholic

School

Students and faculty of St. John Vianney

WHAT: St. John Vianney Catholic School's 50th Anniversary Celebration will be announced.

St. John Vianney School opened January 25, 1962 under the leadership of the Sisters' of St. Francis of Philadelphia. Over the past 50 years the school has graduated over 3,000 students.

Special City of Orlando proclamation will be read commemorating the school's anniversary.

WHEN: Wednesday, Oct 26, 2011

10:00 A.M.

Coffee, danishes provided

WHERE: Community Center on SJVS campus,
6200 S. Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, FL 32809

Additional Information:

Interviews available in Spanish as well.