Students Walk to School for a Cause

- WHO: Students in grades Kindergarten – 8th grade from St. Margaret Mary Catholic School in Winter Park
- WHAT: Many students will leave the “luxury” of private automobile transportation behind and walk to school for one day, showing solidarity with students in Haiti who have to walk hours to attend school every day, and the walk is literally uphill both ways because of the mountainous terrain in their villages.
- WHERE: St. Margaret Mary Catholic School
142 E. Swoope Avenue, Winter Park, FL 32789
- WHEN: Feb. 1, 2012, arriving at school between 7:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m.
- WHY: In celebration of National Catholic Schools Week Jan. 29 and Feb. 5, 2012. The theme is: “Faith. Academics. Service.” Many Catholic schools will be doing service projects, prayer services and fun events to commemorate the week.
