Join Bishop Noonan for Living Stations of the Cross on Good Friday

WHO: Bishop John Noonan, priests, religious sisters, Catholics from around the Diocese of Orlando

WHAT: Diocese of Orlando is organizing a Living Stations of the Cross on Good Friday, one of Christianity's holiest days

WHERE: Lake Eola Amphitheatre in Downtown Orlando – all are invited to attend

WHEN: today Friday, April 6 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Additional Information:

At the request of Bishop John Noonan, the Stations of the Cross will be re-enacted and prayed at the Amphitheatre of Lake Eola Park in downtown Orlando on Good Friday, April 6 from 9 – 11 a.m. The Amphitheatre of Lake Eola Park is located on Rosalind Avenue closest to the Washington Street intersection. The Living Stations of the Cross Ministry of St. John Vianney Catholic Church will re-enact the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Participating in this prayerful, yet public venue also offers an opportunity of evangelization to the larger public.
